

TOWN OF TIMBERVILLE
DECLARATION OF LOCAL EMERGENCY

COVID-19 is a communicable disease that was declared by the World Health Organization (“WHO”) to be a “public health emergency of international concern” on January 30, 2020, and its spread was characterized by the WHO as a pandemic on March 11, 2020.

On March 12, 2020, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Virginia issued a Declaration of a State of Emergency related to COVID-19, and that declaration states that the “anticipated effects of COVID-19 constitute a disaster as described” in Virginia Code § 44-146.16, and a “communicable disease of public health threat,” a term that is also defined in Virginia Code § 44-146.16.

As the Town Executive and Director of Emergency Management for the Town of Timberville, Virginia, I find the imminent threat to the public health and safety of the residents of the Town of Timberville, Virginia posed by the COVID-19 virus to be of sufficient severity and magnitude to be an emergency and a disaster, as those terms are defined in Virginia Code § 44-146.16, and to warrant coordinated local government action to prevent or alleviate any potential damage, hardship, suffering, or possible loss of life. Therefore, pursuant to Virginia Code § 44-146.21, I hereby declare a Local Emergency in the Town of Timberville, Virginia beginning May 26, 2020 at 6:20 p.m.

In accordance with this Declaration, the Regional Emergency Operations Plan is activated, furnishing aid and assistance under the Plan are authorized, and all appropriate Town departments and agencies are hereby vested with, and authorized to carry out, all powers, duties and functions prescribed by the State and local laws, rules and regulations, and plans as may be necessary to adequately and appropriately respond to the Local Emergency by providing emergency services and emergency assistance, and by taking emergency actions.
